FORWARD

The Lord is commissioning and releasing His bride in an unprecedented fashion that has not existed in previous generations, raising up ministries and resources for the hands-on, practical equipping of all believers. This manual is truly a resource that God has released with this purpose in mind. Gary is one of the best I have ever known in the area of dream interpretation. I have seen him interpret the dreams of believers as well as non-believers out on the streets with amazing revelation and accuracy. This book is the culmination of over a decade of practical experience.

There is a new excitement coming to the church regarding dreams, as we rediscover the many accounts throughout the pages of the Bible when God spoke powerfully to great men and women of God in this manner. The Lord never stopped speaking through dreams; the church simply stopped listening. Now the Holy Spirit is awakening us to one of God's primary ways of communicating to us.

This manual is much more than theory, but a practical guide to help each believer grow in their ability to understand God's message to them through their dreams. It is especially helpful for those who have yet to step out in the area of interpretation, which provides incredible opportunities to reach those who don't know Jesus. God begins to quicken their spirit when they realize that there is a Father who loves them and is communicating to them through their dreams. All of a sudden Christianity explodes from religion to reality.

In this hour Jesus is raising up a fearless army from every stream of Christianity that will embrace their destiny and walk in the supernatural power of God to transform a world desperate for a touch from Jesus.

INTRODUCTION

It's impossible to read through the Bible without noticing the fact that God speaks through dreams. Throughout the Old and New Testaments the Lord used dreams to communicate messages, both to believers and non-believers. The purpose of this manual is to equip you in the area of dream interpretation so that God's messages will not fall by the wayside. Just think for a moment about all the divine revelation that is lost because the body of Christ is so lacking in knowledge when it comes to dreams.

The 2nd chapter of Acts tells us that the last days would be marked by a great increase of prophetic revelation, including dreams and visions. We need, as the people of God, to step boldly into what the Lord desires to do on the Earth in our day. When Jesus speaks to us in any manner we cannot be content with missing even a single word. If we are to be effective and fruitful in our lives and ministries we must become attuned to His voice. The Church has tried for too long to get by with human wisdom and the traditions of men. It's time we begin to get our strategies and blueprints directly from the One who created the heavens and the Earth. The Lord desires to speak to our hearts and minds so that we can fulfill the destinies and plans He has designed for us.

I challenge you to become fully equipped in discerning God's voice as He speaks into your life. In so doing, you will also place yourself into the position of learning to speak prophetically to others. These lessons will bring you one step closer to this goal.

There is one Scripture in particular that states the primary principal of dream interpretation. In Genesis 40:8 Joseph was asked by Pharaoh (the ruler over Egypt) to interpret a dream that none of his advisors were able to derive the meaning of. Joseph responded to him with a question: "Do not interpretations belong to God?" Joseph didn't mean that only God could interpret, but rather, only with God could he then give Pharaoh the correct interpretation. Dream interpretation is not a merely intellectual exercise of 'figuring out' a dream's meaning. If you are going to interpret a dream correctly you have to partner together with the Holy Spirit. Just as with other forms of prophetic ministry, understanding comes from the Lord. Although there are methods and principals involved that help us unravel a dream's meaning, without the mind of the Spirit we will be unfruitful. There are no clear-cut formulas or equations. We cannot put all the elements of a dream into a computer and come up with the interpretation the Lord intended. There is no dream book that will give us instant answers.

I have spoken to many Christians who object to dream interpretation because of its association with the occult and the New Age Movement. My answer is that the devil will always attempt to counterfeit the things of God in order to discredit them. The Bible tells us that we can expect false teachers, false prophets, false shepherds, and false doctrines. Do we then eliminate teachers, pastors, prophets and doctrines to make sure no one falls into the traps of the enemy? Of course not. Rather, the Word tells us to use discernment and test the spirits (1 John 4:1). The existence of false, counterfeit deceptions should not dissuade us from seeking the genuine. We do not want to throw the proverbial baby out with the bathwater. The Lord has given the ministry of dream interpretation as a gift to His people. (See Daniel 1:17). We must not surrender it to the enemy.

The Lord gives us scriptural safeguards when it comes to prophetic ministry, such as:

Do not put out the Spirit's fire; do not treat prophecies with contempt. Test everything. Hold on to the good. (1 Thessalonians 5:19-21)

Dream interpretation, as a form of prophetic ministry, should be embraced. The above Scripture tell us that we need to weigh out and confirm our interpretations. We need to examine them through the lens of God's written Word and to seek further confirmation from the Holy Spirit. We do not, however, want to "put out the Spirit's fire" by discounting a clearly biblical means of hearing the voice of Jesus, our Lord.

In Numbers 11:29, Moses reflected the heart of God when he said, "I wish that all the LORD's people were prophets and that the LORD would put his Spirit on them!" Today we have the opportunity to fulfill this ancient prayer as the Spirit of Revelation is being poured out on the Church. Let it rain down on you.

This manual is divided into seven lessons that you can study alone or in a home group or Bible study, along with a dream dictionary. I do not claim that any of the topics or lists in this manual are covered exhaustively. Rather, my goal is to start you on your way and provide some firm footing.

Just as with any other ministry, the more you practice and persevere, the more adept you will become. Although some might ultimately be more gifted than others in dream interpretation, I believe that all God's children can develop basic dream interpreting skills in partnership with the Holy Spirit. Acts 2 gives us the qualifications for those people who can receive and speak out prophetic revelation:

In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. (Acts 2:17, 18)

If you are a born again man, woman, boy or girl then this manual is for you. I pray that the Lord will help us as we learn to unlock the door of understanding and revelation, which is the inheritance of all God's beloved children.

(Ephesians 1:17, 18)

LESSON ONE

The Purpose of Dreams

I believe that the primary reason God uses dreams to speak to us is because it is the one time He knows He has our full attention. During the day we are so often distracted by the activities, pressures and pleasures of our lives. At other times, we may close our ears to God's voice because we do not want to hear a challenging or convicting word, perhaps because we know we're not living according to His will. Job 33:14 tells us:

For God [does reveal His will; He] speaks not only once, but more than once, even though men do not regard it. (Amplified Bible)

The Lord is always trying to get our attention. The question is, are we listening? When we dream, our conscious minds are asleep so that our defenses are down and distractions are gone. He now has a "captive audience." Job 33:15a speaks directly to this issue:

(One may hear God's voice) in a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men while slumbering upon the bed. Then He opens the ears of men and seals their instruction... (Amplified Bible)

Also, a dream can leave a powerful, unforgettable image in our hearts and minds, which is not always the case with a spoken, prophetic word.

I often relive dreams from my past, and I can feel the emotion and the impact of the storylines as though I dreamt them last night.

What Is The Source Of Dreams?

Dreams can come from (1) the Lord, (2) demonic spirits or (3) our own souls or (4) bodies.

1) The Lord: God authors dreams to speak to us. I will discuss this at length in the next section.

2) Demonic Spirits: The Bible says that the enemy comes “only to steal and kill and destroy” (John 10:10). Demonic entities such as spirits of fear, sexual sin, rejection, anger, condemnation etc. will at times be the origin of dreams or nightmares that release terror, depression, unbelief or lust into our mind and emotions. (I personally suffered since childhood with ‘night terrors.’ I awoke many, many nights, screaming and very disoriented. It was only when I received prayer at the Toronto Revival in 1997 that they finally and forever stopped.) The Devil’s purpose in these dreams is always to harm us and attempt to turn us away from God.

Even demonically based dreams can be turned around by the Lord and be used for our good. Through these dreams God can reveal open doors in our lives that are entry points to the enemy. These ‘open doors’ are often unrepentant sins. For example, if someone lusts after a member of the opposite gender, the sin can create an entry way for a demonic spirit of lust to get a foothold. It’s no surprise that this spirit will have access to that individual’s dream life to create lustful dreams. God allows these dreams as a means of uncovering the sin and bringing conviction so that he or she can become free.

 It is important to note that a frightening dream is not always demonically inspired (see Job 7:14). We always have to ask the Holy Spirit to help us to discern the source of a particular dream.

There can also be other open doors for the enemy to enter into our dream life. These include:

a) Movies, Television Shows or Music which exalts evil:

Demonic spirits will often attach themselves to these forms of media. We open ourselves up to them when we watch or listen to ungodly themes and story lines. (Conversely, listening to worship music or viewing godly videos will open up the door for the Holy Spirit to touch our hearts.) As an illustration, watching today's horror films can give access to a spirit of fear to come in and give you nightmares. Watching movies or videos displaying illicit sex can open the doorway of your soul to a spirit of lust which can also manifest in your dreams.

b) Past abuse or trauma: Traumatic experiences can create an inroad through which the enemy may build a stronghold of fear, rejection or bitterness in our lives. Awareness of this through a dream interpretation can bring inner healing and deliverance to our soul. (For me personally, I believe that a spirit of fear which gained entry through past traumas was the source of my nightmares.)

3) The soul: The soul is comprised of our emotions, mind and will. Stress, inner conflicts (conscious or unconscious), emotional ups and downs, loneliness, and impeding difficult situations can influence our dreams. I recall one night when I knew that the following day would bring an extremely stressful situation. I had four different dreams that night which played out four scenarios and outcomes for what I was about to face. Just as with demonic dreams, the Lord can use these to show us ways in which our minds or feelings are influencing our behavior in a wrong manner. Ecclesiastes 5:3 tells us that...a dream comes when there are many cares.

4) The body: Bodily pain, discomfort and unmet physical needs can affect our dreams. For instance, Isaiah 29:7, 8 tells us that a person who is hungry and thirsty may dream about food and water.

Dream Messages

What are the things the Lord desires to communicate to us in dreams? I will outline several possible dream messages and note Scriptures that relate to each:

- 1) Warning: (Genesis 20:1-7, Job 33:16, Matthew 2:22) God may warn of an impending danger. He may also warn us of the consequences of our actions when we are engaged in sin or rebellion.
- 2) Direction: (Matthew 1:20, Matthew 2:13, Acts 16:9, 10) The Lord, at times, gives us instructions or directions through dreams.
- 3) Revelation of Destiny (Genesis 28:11-15, Genesis 37:9) The Lord may reveal to us our ultimate calling or ministry.
- 4) Strength, Encouragement and Comfort (1 Cor. 14:3) As with all prophetic ministry, bringing strength, encouragement, and comfort is a primary focus.
- 5) Healing and Deliverance (Isaiah 61, Luke 4:18) Jesus proclaimed: “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised.”
- 6) Revelation of Future Events (Genesis 15:12-16, Daniel 2, Daniel 7, and Amos 3:7) God reveals coming events in our lives or in the lives of others. He might even reveal a future occurrence in a church, city or nation. At times, God may ask us to take action in light of this type of message (such as sounding a warning), but more often He wants us simply to pray for the situation in accordance with His will. Seeing into the future helps us to be watchful and discerning.

7) Conviction of Sin (Job 33:17) “...to turn man from wrongdoing and keep him from pride.”

The Dream Subject

It's important to determine who the dream message is for (i.e., the dream subject). Although most of the time a dream is a message to the dreamer, it can also be for another person, a group of people, a church, a denomination, a neighborhood, a city, a state, a region, a nation, or even the world. The higher the level of prophetic calling on an individual, the more their dreams will go beyond their immediate surroundings. Still, I have seen even new believers receive dreams that give revelation on what God is doing nationally or even among the nations.

Prophetic Character

If you are going to interpret dreams or engage in any other prophetic ministry, it's vital to walk in holiness and purity and sanctify ourselves unto God. There are many reasons for this. Hearing from God requires that we keep our hearts and minds pure. Polluting our souls with music, movies, television programs, video games, etc. that give an anti-biblical, anti-God message will create confusion and cloud the channels between us and the Lord. Secondly, when we interpret dreams for others we are speaking into a person's life which means we are speaking to others on the Lord's behalf. We need to represent Christ not only with words, but by making our bodies a living sacrifice. (see Romans 12:1) I'm not saying that you have to have your life all together for God to use you prophetically. My point is that we cannot take sin lightly. This is true for all believers but it is especially true for those who desire to be God's prophetic voice. As 2 Timothy 2:20-22 tells us:

In a wealthy home some utensils are made of gold and silver, and some are made of wood and clay. The expensive utensils are used for special occasions, and the cheap ones are for everyday use. If you keep yourself pure, you will be a utensil God can use for his purpose. Your life will be clean, and you will be ready for the Master to use you for every good work. Run from anything that stimulates youthful lust. Follow anything that makes you want to do right. Pursue faith and love and peace, and enjoy the companionship of those who call on the Lord with pure hearts. (New Living Translation)

DREAM ASSIGNMENT #1

I encourage you to keep a dream journal. Try to write down your dream as soon as you wake up. Note also how the dream made you feel, as emotions can reveal a lot. Occasionally, there might be significance in the time you woke up from the dream. Jot down as much detail as possible. Regardless of how insignificant a dream may seem at the time, take it seriously. The Lord often speaks powerfully in ways that we might consider foolish, and I have seen many people discard dreams or visions that come wrapped in a seemingly trivial package.

I pray in the name of Jesus that the Lord would open your spiritual eyes and ears as you endeavor to hear His voice in a new way. I also pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better (Ephesians 1:17, NLT). Amen.

LESSON TWO

Biblical Dream Symbols

Although some dreams can be taken literally, that is the exception. Most dreams are full of symbolism, which needs to be interpreted to make sense. Many people totally discount their dreams because they often seem meaningless and foolish. If you can understand the symbolic elements of a dream you will see that what appears to be trivial and nonsensical is often deep and profound. I believe the reason the Lord wraps our dreams in symbolism is because He wants us to learn to seek Him. He wants us to become totally dependant upon Him and His wisdom. The Lord tells us in no uncertain terms:

As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.
(Isaiah 55:9)

That leaves us with the issue of how to determine a symbol's meaning. The first thing we look at is the Bible. Scripture is full of symbolic meaning which we can often apply to our dreams. For example, let's look at some common biblical symbols for the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit is often typified by:

- a) Water (John 7:38, 39)
- b) Oil (Matthew 25:4)
- c) Wind (John 3:8)
- d) Fire (Matthew 3:11)
- e) Light (Psalm 43:3)
- f) A Dove (Matthew 3:16)

In a dream water, oil, wind, light or fire will often represent either the Holy Spirit Himself or the things of the Spirit. However, we cannot say that water, for example, always typifies the Holy Spirit.

Water can also symbolize:

- a) The Word of God (Ephesians 5:26)
- b) Great Obstacles (Exodus 14, Isaiah 43:2)
- c) The Judgment of God (Genesis 7, Job 20:28)
- d) Overwhelming Troubles (Psalm 18:16)

Interpreting dream symbols is not as easy as looking up their meanings in a Christian dream symbol dictionary (although having one can be very helpful). There are several principles of interpretation that are vital:

- 1) Ask the Holy Spirit. Depending on the Lord is the foundation of dream interpretation in all of its aspects.
- 2) Look at the Context of the Dream. A dream basically tells a story. All the symbols have to fit together for the dream message to unfold. As an example, let's look at the dream that Joseph interpreted for the Pharaoh in Genesis 41:1-4:

When two full years had passed, Pharaoh had a dream: He was standing by the Nile, when out of the river there came up seven cows, sleek and fat, and they grazed among the reeds. After them, seven other cows, ugly and gaunt, came up out of the Nile and stood beside those on the riverbank. And the cows that were ugly and gaunt ate up the seven sleek, fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

The dream symbols are seven sleek and fat cows, and seven ugly and gaunt (skinny) cows. According to Joseph, the seven fat cows symbolized seven years of prosperity and the seven skinny cows symbolized seven years of famine. The skinny cows eating the fat cows meant that after seven years of prosperity ended there would then be seven years of famine and lack. The picture is famine swallowing up prosperity. As a result of this dream the Egyptians were able to be prepared for the time of famine.

Can you see how the symbols relate to each other and fit into the context of the message? It's like a jigsaw puzzle in which all the pieces need to fit together and interrelate in order to get the whole picture.

3) Look at the outstanding characteristics of the symbol.

In Pharaoh's dream fatness equaled abundance while skinniness equaled lack. That was key. Let's go back to the symbol of water. It is important to look at details about the water in a dream which might give us more clues. Here are some helpful illustrations:

- a) Is the water clear or murky? Clear water is more likely to signify the Holy Spirit or the Word of God while murky, dirty water is usually significant of false doctrine or something compromising or evil.
- b) Is the water still and quiet or troubled and stormy? Still water is often indicative of the peace of God while troubled waters typify tribulation or demonic attack (Isaiah 57:20). (If it is a river being symbolized then it is the opposite. A rushing river symbolizes the moving of the Spirit (John 7:38, 39) while a stagnant river can represent complacency or dead religious activity).
- c) Is the water suitable for drinking or is it bitter? Good drinking water can represent the Holy Spirit and the good things of God (Psalm 36: 8, 9; Isaiah 55:1), while bitter water symbolizes sin and bitterness.

Here are some other widely accepted, biblically-based symbols. You will find their Scripture references in the dictionary section of this book:

Judge, Gardener or Father Figure = God, the Father

Lamb, Bridegroom, Teacher, Attorney, Husband, Doctor, Lion, or King = Jesus

Dragon, Serpent, or Lion = Satan (Notice that a lion can signify Jesus or Satan. We should never be too quick to automatically assign meaning to a symbol.)

Sheep, Fish, Child, Bride or Wheat = A Christian

Milk, Meat, Water, Hammer, Sword, Mirror or Honey = the Word of God

Bear, Bees, Wolf, Fox, Arrows, Rat or a Storm = Attack or deceits of the enemy.

Colors And Numbers

Colors and numbers have significance as dream elements. We can, for the most part, find their symbolic meanings in Scripture. (Although, as we saw in Pharaoh's dream, numbers can be taken literally.) Let's look first at numbers. I will list one meaning for each of the numbers one through ten, as well as one scriptural reference.

Numbers As Symbols

One = Unity (Philippians 2:2)

Two = Witness (2 Corinthians 13:1)

Three = God as the Trinity (2 Corinthians 13:14)

Four = The Earth (Four winds, four seasons, four corners of the Earth), (Rev. 7:1)

Five = God's enabling grace and power (Leviticus 26:8)

Six = The number of man (Created on the sixth day), (Revelation 13:18)

Seven = Completeness or perfection (Genesis 2:2)

Eight = A new beginning (1 Peter 3:20)

Nine = The Holy Spirit (Nine fruit of the Spirit, Nine charismatic Spiritual gifts), (Galatians 5:22, 23)

Ten = Trial and Testing (Daniel 1:12-15)

Colors As Symbols

As I mentioned, colors also have symbolic significance:

- Red = The blood of Jesus (forgiveness, freedom), (Ephesians 2:13), passion or anger
- Blue = Revelation or authority from Heaven (2 Corinthians 12:1) or sadness (the blues)
- Purple = Jesus as King and Ruler (Revelation 1:5)
- White = Purity (Revelation 3:4)
- Scarlet, Crimson = Sin (Isaiah 1:18)
- Green = Prosperity (Proverbs 11:28), life or 'Go Ahead' (given a green light)
- Orange = Danger, warning
- Yellow = Glory, fear or slow down and be cautious (as when a traffic light turns yellow)

DREAM ASSIGNMENT #2:

All of the above can have more than one symbolic meaning. I urge you to sit with a Bible Concordance and look up the usage of various colors and numbers in the Bible. See if you can find consistent patterns in the way each number or color is signified.

LESSON THREE

Modern-Day Symbols

Besides the symbols which can be given meaning based on their usage in the Bible, many dream symbols come from our modern-day experience. When Jesus spoke in parables two thousand years ago He used symbols that were part of the everyday life of His listeners. Since many people in ancient Israel were familiar with farming, Jesus used activities such as plowing, sowing, planting, reaping, etc. as metaphors for Kingdom principles. It's the same today. The Lord speaks to us in ways we can relate to. The Lord desires to speak to all of His people, not only ministers and Bible college graduates.

Just as is the case with biblical symbols, all dream symbols can have more than one interpretation. For example, a gun can represent a demonic attack or the power of God being released. When looking at biblical symbols I mentioned that details are very important. Say, for instance, that someone dreams they're riding in an elevator. Here are some things to look for:

- 1) Is the elevator going up or down? If it is going up then it might mean that the Lord is about to elevate or promote the person. If it's going down it could mean a fall or that the person is headed in the wrong direction in life.
- 2) What floor is the elevator going to? If an elevator is going up to the 8th floor it could mean a new beginning in the dream subject's life. An elevator going down to the 6th floor may signify that the person is leaning on human advice rather than godly wisdom and counsel. (See Lesson 2 and dictionary for number meanings).
- 3) Who else is in the elevator? An elevator operator can represent the Holy Spirit, a leader, a boss or even Satan. (Remember, look at the context and ask the Lord.) Other passengers may symbolize other people in the dreamer's life.

Personal Meaning

It's important to ask the dreamer what a dream symbol means to them personally. A good example of this is a dog. To some people a dog is a symbol of love, warmth and faithfulness. To others who have had bad experiences with dogs, it may signify anger or even an attack. When I was a teenager living in Brooklyn, I often experienced packs of wild dogs in the streets because back then many dog owners would let their dogs loose when they no longer wanted them. Because of those experiences, I don't get the same warm, cuddly feelings when I think of dogs that others might have. That is why emotions in a dream are so important. They give us clues in helping us to interpret.

Modern-Day Transportation

Typically, modes of transportation represent churches or ministries because they are symbolic of how we move together in the Lord. (Of course, they can also signify travel. An airplane for instance can mean a long trip or overseas missions work). Here is a list of different transport vehicles and their possible symbolic significance:

- 1) Car = An individual or small ministry
- 2) Airplane = A church or ministry that moves in the Spirit. (A large airliner usually symbolizes a large church.)
- 3) Train = A church that is steeped in tradition and ritual. A train always takes the same route to the same place at the same time. There is no room for flexibility or being Holy Spirit led. On the other hand a train can signify a powerful ministry or one that is continuously on the move.

- 4) School Bus = A teaching ministry or a children's ministry
- 5) Ship = Church or ministry. If the ship is on the ocean it could signify ministry to the peoples of the nations. (Revelation 17:15)
- 6) Rowboat = Ministry that relies on human effort (also a Bicycle)
- 7) Motorboat = Ministry powered by the Holy Spirit
- 8) Battleship = Spiritual Warfare (also a Tank or Fighter Plane)
- 9) Tractor Trailer = A ministry of bringing provision
- 10) Moving Truck = Change or relocation

Back To Details

Remember that details are significant. If the dreamer is on the Number Three Train he or she is likely to be moving in the Lord. A wrecked car can represent a ministry being destroyed or at least headed in that direction. A car with failing brakes typically speaks of a ministry out of control and a broken down car symbolizes a broken down ministry.

 Important note: Many negative events forecast in dreams can be averted through repentance, prayer and/or godly wisdom.

Just as is the case with the elevator operator mentioned above, the person who is driving or piloting a vehicle also has symbolic relevance. The one driving is the one in authority or in control.

Train stations, bus depots, docks and piers, airports and parking lots usually signify a time of waiting or impending transition.

A driver looking through a rear view mirror is someone who is looking back to the past.

A vehicle stopping for gas can signify a need to stop and refuel on the Word of God and prayer.

Tires are filled with air, which is a type of the Holy Spirit. Tires which are flat or low on air show a church or ministry in need of the Holy Spirit's presence, guidance and power.

Mini-List Of Common Dream Symbols

(Any symbol on this list can at times be taken literally but I have found that to be the exception rather than the norm.)

You will find a much more complete listing in the dream dictionary:

- 1) Cat = Self-will or independence (A black cat can signify witchcraft or superstition)
- 2) Vacation = Time of Spiritual rest and refreshing
- 3) Mountain = Hindrance or obstacle – Can also be a place of encountering the Lord (Exodus 19:3, Luke 9:28)
- 4) Death = The death of a person in a dream is not typically a bad thing. It is often symbolic of dying to the sinful flesh (Romans 8:13). It can also mean something coming to an end. You have to really hear from the Lord to take death in a dream as literal. An exception would be if a dream subject is flirting with death by engaging in potentially deadly sins such as using drugs or criminal activity. If the person is unsaved it could also represent a warning of spiritual death (Romans 6:23) if there is no turning to Christ.

- 5) Door = An opportunity (A white door usually means that it is a door opened by the Lord.)
- 6) Alligator = Verbal attack or gossip (Alligators have very large mouths that can easily destroy.)
- 7) Microwave = Things happening quickly
- 8) Earthquake = God's power (Acts:16:26) or judgment (Revelation 11:13)
- 9) Bear = Attack of the enemy or God's judgment
- 10) Photograph = Memory of the past
- 11) Stain or Dirt = Sin
- 12) Teeth = One's ability to comprehend the word of God (or chew on the meat of the Word) or to use wisdom. Teeth can also represent relationships.
- 13) Electricity = The power of God
- 14) Spider Web = Trap of the enemy
- 15) Prison = Spiritual bondage or addiction
- 16) Tree = A leader (Daniel 4:22), a righteous person (Psalm 92:12) or the Cross of Christ (1 Peter 2:24)
- 17) Flower = Natural beauty

18) Sun = Glory and light of God

19) Moon = The people of God (Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, Christians have no light of their own but they reflect the Glory of the Lord.)

20) Darkness = Lack of spiritual light or vision

21) Map = The Lord's direction

LESSON FOUR

People In Dreams

Just as is the case with other dream elements, most people (though again, not all) who appear in dreams are symbolic. At times, even the dreamer's role in a dream may be symbolic of something else. Here are some of the ways we can discover the significance of a particular person in a dream:

- 1) Identify something specific about that person in real life, such as an outstanding personality, character or temperament trait. For example, if the person in the dream is identified as an angry person in reality, then it is possible that the Lord is revealing an anger issue in the dreamer's life. If the person is a man or woman of great faith, then it could be that the dreamer's faith is at issue. (Often, when a person dreams about someone whom he or she respects as a strong Christian, this reveals that there is indeed a message from the Lord embedded in the dream.) I usually will ask the dreamer to tell me what stands out in their mind about a particular dream character.

- 2) If the person in the dream is a family member, then look at his or her real life relationship with the dreamer. Family members can have symbolic significance, For example:
 - a) Father = God the Father
 - b) Mother = The Church where the dreamer is or was nurtured in the Lord
 - c) Husband = Jesus (John 3:29)
 - d) Wife = The Church body (Revelations 19:7) or something that metaphorically speaking the dreamer is "married to" such as a job, a hobby or even a car
 - e) Brother = a male Christian
 - f) Sister = a female Christian

g) Son or Daughter = A ministry that the dreamer birthed

3) Look at the occupation or role of the person in the dream. Here is a sample list with possible symbolic interpretations to give you a basic idea:

a) Farmer = A preacher, evangelist (Matthew 13:18-23), a giving person (2 Corinthians 9:10) or the Lord (Matthew 13:24-30)

b) Soldier = An angel or a demon, depending on whether he represents good or evil, or a Christian engaged in Spiritual warfare (Ephesians 6:10-18)

c) Shepherd = Jesus or a pastor

d) District Attorney = Satan (the accuser of the brethren) or a legalistic Christian (Galatians 3:1-3)

e) Lawyer = Jesus, our Advocate or someone who defends the weak or oppressed

f) Judge = God, the Father or a judgmental person

g) Auto Mechanic = Someone the Lord is using to help 'fix' or realign a ministry

h) Waiter = A teacher (one who serves 'spiritual food') or a servant (Matt. 23:11)

i) Doctor = Jesus or a Christian with a healing ministry

When a man in a dream is of unknown identity or is heard but remains unseen he often represents the Holy Spirit. If such a person shows any of the functions of the Holy Spirit (protector, counselor, teacher) and/or attributes (perfectly holy, all knowing, all powerful, loving) it most likely is Him. If the person is evil, then it may mean Satan or a demon is lurking.

4) The clothes a person is wearing can tell you a lot. Someone dressed in white usually pictures a man or woman of God. A person wearing very dark clothes can signal evil. For example, if the dream is about a shepherd in dark clothes he may symbolize Satan or a false teacher. A prophetic person may be dressed in blue and a person in a dangerous situation might have on something orange. (See Lesson 2 for a list of colors and what they may represent)

 Important note: I have seen Christian books on dream interpretation that claim that a dark skinned person can symbolize an evil individual. That is untrue. The Lord never uses skin color alone to signify good or evil.

Clothes that are revealing and seductive usually speak of sexual sin or lust. When the dreamer, to his or her embarrassment, is walking in public either nude or partially nude it often is revealing shame or a fear of being publicly exposed.

5) The name of a person in a dream is significant. at times. I keep a book handy that gives the meaning for most names. The dream dictionary will give you the meaning of many these common names.

I will now present a list of some names and their meanings so you can better understand the concept.

Alexander = Defender of mankind
 Christopher = Carrier of Christ
 Daniel = God is my judge
 Gloria = Glory
 Hillary = Happy
 Jessica = He sees
 John = The Lord is gracious
 Jonathan = Gift of God
 Joseph = God increases
 Joshua = The Lord is salvation
 Katherine = Pure
 Kenneth = Sprung from fire
 Mark = Warlike
 Mary = Bitterness
 Michael = Who is like the Lord?
 Nicholas = People of victory
 Raymond = Counselor, protector

Richard = Dominant ruler

Ruth = Friend

Tiffany = Appearance of God

From the above list it is easy to see how a name can figure prominently in a dream. As an example, someone named Joseph in a dream may be symbolic of financial or spiritual increase. A man named John may be symbolic of the Lord's desire to show grace to the dream subject.

6) Often times, people in dreams are from the dreamer's past, and may be an individual he or she hasn't seen for many years. The dreamer may appear in the dream as he or she looked as a young child and others might look the same way they did many years before. There are several possible reasons for this:

- a) The person might be part of an unresolved issue from the dreamer's past. For example, an unfaithful ex-boyfriend in a dream may point to lingering bitterness against him which needs to be forgiven and left in the Lord's hands.
- b) There may be an issue of generational sin patterns or curses that the Lord wants to bring to light so that deliverance can take place.
- c) On the other hand the Lord might be pointing out generational blessings or spiritual inheritances. An example would be a dream about a grandparent or great grandparent who walked in a prophetic gifting which the Lord wants to impart to the dreamer.
- d) The appearance of a person from the dreamer's past may reveal the source of current emotional or relational problems. For example, a person who deals with shame and rejection may dream about an abusive grandparent who helped open the door to these intense negative emotions. The root cause of the rejection and shame being uncovered can be a powerful first step toward inner healing. (If you would like to read more on this topic, I recommend the books

Take one of your own dreams that you have recorded and list on a piece of paper:

- 1) Colors or Numbers used in the dream
- 2) People appearing in the dream (including name, occupation, clothing, relationship to you and any outstanding personal traits)
- 3) Any modes of transportation used such as a car, an airplane, etc.
- 4) Other dream elements such as animals, inanimate objects or things in nature like the sun, rain, a river, etc.

Using the first four chapters of this manual, and in cooperation with the Holy Spirit begin to assign meaning to each element in the 4 categories listed above. You might want to use other helpful tools, such as a Bible, a Bible dictionary, and a Bible concordance. If you have questions you can e-mail them to me at: dreams@sanctuaryfellowship.org I will respond as soon as possible.

Don't worry if you can't recall all the details of the dream. Just list the information you do remember.

LESSON FIVE

Dream Settings

The issue I would like to examine in this lesson is the dream setting. In other words, where and when does the dream's storyline take place? In many dreams the action moves from place to place. The scene may also switch from the past to the future. All of these details are significant to a dream's meaning.

The Symbolism Of Dream Settings

Here is a list of some common dream settings, and their typical symbolic significance. (As I mentioned in the preface, none of the lists in this manual are exhaustive in terms of content or possible symbolic meanings.)

- 1) Car, a Train or other Modes of Transportation =
(See Lesson 3)
- 2) Office = Can represent either a place of employment, financial provision or a ministry 'office'; such as pastor, teacher, prophet, etc. (Ephesians 4:11) When someone dreams of a business owned by his or her father, in my experience that is usually speaking of the work of the Lord - And He said to them, "Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father's business?" (Luke 2:49)
- 3) Gymnasium = Can signify competition, pride or training for spiritual maturity (1 Timothy 4:8, 1 Corinthians 9:25-27)
- 4) Hospital = A church (place of healing), or a healing ministry
- 5) Farm = A church or ministry (1 Corinthians 3:9), sowing and reaping, provision, discipleship, or evangelism (Matthew 13:3-9)

- 6) Restaurant = Eating and drinking the Word (Hebrews 5: 11-14), or drinking in the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:13)
- 7) School = A period of being tested by the Lord, a teaching ministry, discipleship, the study of the Word of God, a time of preparation
- 8) Waiting Room, Parking Lot, Airport, Train Station, Bus Terminal = Time of waiting, preparation and/or transition
- 9) Prison = Bondage to sin, addictions
- 10) Hotel = A transitional or temporary life season, travel
- 11) Swimming Pool = Refreshing of the Holy Spirit
- 12) House = Typically a house is symbolic of the dreamer's or dream subject's life (Matthew 7:25.) Various rooms and places in the house symbolize different aspects of his or her existence:
 - a) Bathroom = Repentance, deliverance and cleansing of sin
 - b) Attic = Memories of the past
 - c) Basement = Emotions that are repressed or under the surface, hidden sin
 - d) Bedroom = Intimacy with Jesus, meditation and reflection on the Lord, rest, sexual issues or marital intimacy
 - e) Front Yard or Front Door = The future
 - f) Backyard or Backdoor = The past
 - g) Living Room = The public or social part of one's life, family life, Christian fellowship
 - h) Kitchen = Christian service (Luke 10:38-40, MSG) eating (meditating on and studying the Bible) and drinking (receiving the ministry of the Holy Spirit)
 - i) Roof = The mind, God's covering and protection
 - j) Window = Prophetic Revelation

Note - If the dream setting is the dreamer's childhood home, it might mean that:

- a) The dreamer perceives an issue in his or her life as if it were still the past.

- b) There are issues from the dreamer's childhood that are unresolved.
- c) The Lord wants to remind the dreamer of all He has set him or her free from.
- d) See Lesson 4, number 6

- If the dream setting is a new house it could be speaking of a new chapter in the dream subject's life.
- A dirty house speaks of sin, while a damaged house signifies a need for inner healing and/or restoration or physical illness (Or metaphorically a "broken home") A house in disrepair symbolizes the person's neglect of his or her emotional, physical or spiritual needs.
- Very often someone will dream of being at home, but it appears different from the way it does in real life. This could mean that the person is seeing an issue in his or her life from a wrong perspective. It can also be revealing an underlying spirit of confusion.

Times And Seasons

As I already have begun to show, noting when a dream takes place can be just as significant as where it takes place. Let's look at the four seasons. If you can tell whether a dream is set in summer, autumn, winter or spring, it might be significant to the dream interpretation:

1) Summer = Rest, time of refreshing, or a season of God's favor

2) Autumn = Time of reaping a harvest (financial or the lost being saved), the ending of a summer season of refreshing and the transition into a season of trial, or rain in autumn speaks of the latter day outpouring of revival fire on the Earth (Joel 2:27)

3) Winter = A season of trial and tribulation, a lack of fruitfulness or a state of being cold in one's Christian walk, barrenness

4) Spring = New beginnings, the born-again experience, or the end of a season of trials (Song of Solomon 2:11, 12)

Note also the weather conditions and time of day the dream takes place:

- 1) Rain = Outpouring of the Holy Spirit, God's Word (Isaiah 55: 10,11), or God's blessing
- 2) Snow = The Word of God, or purity (Isaiah 1:18)
- 3) Tornado = The Glory of God (Ezekiel 1:4-28), a powerful attack of the enemy (Job 1:19) or God's judgment (Jeremiah 23:19)
- 4) Hail = God's judgment (Exodus 9:18)
- 5) Storm = Trials and difficulties or attack of the enemy
- 6) Bright Sunshine = The presence and favor of God (Psalm 84:11), The light of God, or healing (Malachi 4:2)
- 7) Darkness = Hidden sin, lack of direction, or the work of the enemy (Luke 22:53)
- 8) Lightning = God's judgment, the Presence of God (2 Samuel 22:13) or a sudden move of God
- 9) Thunder = The voice of God (2 Samuel 22:14), spiritual warfare, God's judgment or a warning of an impending attack or trial.
- 10) Cloudy = White cloud - The presence of God (Exodus 13:21), Dark cloud - depression, a coming trial, a hindrance in hearing God's voice.

Also Of Importance

Remember to take note of time in a dream. As I have discussed, numbers have significance. For example, if it is 5 o'clock in the dream it could mean that a time of God's grace is at hand, or 8 o'clock might signify a new beginning. Also, write down the time you wake up from the dream as that can also be significant.

Many dreams will change from one setting to another. There can be several possible reasons for this, which I will discuss in a later chapter.

When you dream about a future event it does not necessarily mean that the event will take place. If you discern that it is something the Lord wants to do, then you need to partner with Him in prayer. (Daniel 9:1-3, 1 Kings 18: 41-44) For example, if you dream of the salvation of a loved one, then you need to intercede for the person's salvation. As John Wesley once said, "God does nothing except in answer to prayer."

If you discern that a dream is demonically inspired and it shows a horrific event set in the future, such as the murder of a family member, then rebuke the enemy and break the spirit of fear. I have had dozens of dreams depicting terrifying events that never took place. As I said in a previous lesson, it is important when you have such dreams to ask the Lord if there is an open door to the enemy in your life or a demonic stronghold such as a spirit of fear.

DREAM ASSIGNMENT #4

In the last lesson I asked you to take a dream and begin to look at the possible symbolic interpretations for colors, numbers, people and other dream elements. Now begin to focus on the dream setting. Look first at where the dream took place. If it was in a house then note the room.

Could you determine the season or the weather? Were there cars, boats, trains or other types of transportation involved? Did the dream take place in the past, present or future? If so, then look at the lists that I have provided to see possible meanings. Also, remember to ask the Lord to give you insight. Without that step, the lists are meaningless.

LESSON SIX

Putting It All Together

In this lesson I will look at an actual dream that was sent to me, and begin the process of interpretation. Now that we have examined different components of dream interpretation, let's begin to put it all together.

SAMPLE DREAM #1

The following is an actual dream from a Pastor who is in the process of starting a local church. Here it is:

I got home from a trip or something and we were in this new apartment. I could tell that we live there now but it was a very strange place. The weirdest thing about it was that the apartment was loaded with pets...My wife had the house full of pets... strange pets... We had a goat in the kitchen - he was tied to a large fruit basket. When I untied him to say hello and play with him, he got so excited that he peed on the bed. We had two huge beds in the room, I don't know why. We had a huge fish tank in the house with all kinds of fish. Then the strangest one - we had a skunk... But he was gorgeous... The skunk was actually bright yellow and his tail was orange. He was the coolest looking animal I've ever seen- he didn't smell and I remember my wife telling me he was the friendliest thing around. When I sat down he came to me and was kissing my hand... He was bright yellow and orange... There were more animals there but I couldn't remember them when I woke up... I can't even start to imagine what all that means.

It is clearly obvious that this dream makes no sense unless it is interpreted. There is very little in it that can be taken literally. Let's first divide the dream into the categories I discussed in the previous lessons.

1) DREAM SETTING: The setting for the dream is a new apartment. The Pastor and his wife were in the process of planting a new church. An apartment or house is symbolic of the dream subject's life. I believe the new apartment symbolizes the new church plant which is a new and prominent aspect of their life

2) DREAM SYMBOLS: There were a number of animals used symbolically in this dream. I feel that the animals are representative of the different categories of people who will be coming to this church. I will now look at them one by one and then put it all together.

a) Goat = A goat can be unruly and hard to manage. At first I saw this as a negative symbol but then I realized that the goat was tied to a bowl of fruit. Fruit represents the positive consequences of the Holy Spirit working through a believer's life. (John 15: 1-8) He didn't seem mean or evil but he was messy as he "peed on the bed". I believe that the goat represented people who would come into the church needing a lot of guidance and discipleship. Although they may be hard to manage, it will be worth the work because they will bear fruit for the Kingdom of God. Perhaps the reason the goat was in the kitchen was because he was eating and drinking of the Word and the Spirit.

b) Fish = Fish are typically symbolic of souls who have come into the Kingdom. (Mark 1:17) In the dream there were all kinds of fish. In this church there will be people from various ethnic groups, social strata and economic levels.

c) Skunk = A skunk is symbolic of someone who fouls up the atmosphere with sin. This skunk however was friendly and beautiful. I interpret this to mean that the skunk appeared to be something that he wasn't. This speaks to me of people who will come into the church and give the appearance of being holy and loving but yet they are still "skunks". Note the skunk's colors: bright yellow and orange. Orange often means danger or warning. Bright yellow can sometimes symbolically say: "Slow down and be cautious." (as when a traffic light turns yellow) These skunks may be false prophets or people living totally hypocritical lifestyles.

 Both yellow and orange can have several symbolic meanings, but in looking at the context and in seeking the Lord, I was impressed to assign the meanings I just discussed. Perhaps you will see even deeper meanings that I might have missed.

There were also 2 big beds in the apartment. A bed speaks of God's peace and rest to those who receive salvation. (Matthew 11:28-29) It is also symbolic of intimacy with the Lord. (Song of Solomon 1:4) I believe that the beds are pointing to many troubled and wearied people who will come to the church and find rest in the Lord through a relationship with Jesus.

3) DREAM SUBJECT: I believe that the dream subject in this dream is the Pastor who dreamed it. The dream seems to contain a message for him. I see no reason to assign symbolic meaning to his presence in the dream.

4) DREAM MESSAGE: The dream is a message of both encouragement and warning. The Lord is encouraging this pastor of a new church plant that he will bring many people into the church of all different backgrounds. Even those who are difficult to pastor at first will bear fruit. It is also a warning to use discernment, as some will come in deceptively.

5) DREAM SOURCE: The source of this dream is clearly the Lord. The enemy does not bring encouragement or warning. Rather, the kingdom of darkness will release discouragement and fear. Many times when Satan is the source of a dream, you will wake up with a feeling of despair, hopelessness or depression.

I also didn't feel that this was a soulish dream. In putting all of the pieces together the Lord made it clear to me that this was a message from Him. A dream that originates from a dreamer's mind or emotions will typically reveal inner needs, drives and conflicts. This dream was all about ministering to others.

This dream shows how dream interpretation can be a powerful tool in hearing and understanding what the Lord is saying. If this pastor had cast this dream aside as foolishness or the result of too many tacos for dinner he would have missed out on a powerful message from the Lord.

APPLICATION

Once you have interpreted a dream, what should you do with the revelation? The answer to the question depends on the situation. If the subject of your dream is someone other than you, and you discern that the dream source is the Lord, then you need to ask God when and how to present it to that person.

Sometimes, when the Lord gives you prophetic revelation, He wants you just to pray for the person and not say anything. It is also important to be very careful if you feel your dream is giving direction to an individual. Many lives have been damaged by misspoken prophetic words of direction telling them to change ministries, quit their jobs, marry a certain person, etc. If you do feel that the message of a dream gives direction for someone other than yourself, really seek the Lord about whether your interpretation needs to be shared. If you are strongly impressed that you need to share your message, then go to a church leader or pastor. In that way there is accountability and safety. If the leader tells you not to share the interpretation, then you need to submit to his or her authority. (See Hebrews 13:17)

This is also true if you feel that your dream is a word of direction for a church. Share the word with the pastor. Never go around to people in a congregation and share your interpretation with them. This can cause division and rebellion and believe me when I tell you, it happens. This is a wrong use of prophetic ministry because you are moving outside the realm of authority the Lord has given you. If the Lord directs you to share an interpretation with an individual or a group of people and you do so, then you have fulfilled your responsibility (other than keeping it in prayer.) If your interpretation is ignored, then leave it at that. Don't keep badgering people if you feel they have not heeded your words. Conviction is the work of the Holy Spirit (See Ezekiel 33:7-9)

If we stay within biblical guidelines, then dream interpretation will be safe and fruitful. If we move outside of these boundaries we can cause great harm and even ruin lives and ministries.

If the Lord gives you a dream with a message for yourself, it is not always wise to share it. Gen 37:1-11 tells us that Joseph had a dream that one day he would have authority over his parents and brothers. (This was actually later fulfilled.) Telling his family, however, caused anger and jealousy. Perhaps it would have been wiser to keep the dream to himself.

Also, make sure that if you do reveal your dream to others, it is never out of a wrong motive such as pride or a need for attention or recognition. Always be led by the Spirit.

DREAM ASSIGNMENT #5

Take the dream you have been working on and follow the pattern I gave you today. Begin to determine the dream's message, source and subject.

LESSON SEVEN

In Conclusion

My goal in writing this manual is to give you some elementary skills in dream interpretation. Begin to put these basic principles into practice and allow the Lord to bring you to a higher level of prophetic maturity. In this lesson I will look at two more actual dreams that were sent to me and give you a few more principals of dream interpretation.

SAMPLE DREAM #2

I dreamt that my mom had a new house and I visited and I counted seven toilets in her house, only on the left hand side. I counted two times. I said to her: "You have seven toilets, and that's only on this side." She said that she wanted people to be able to "go." The toilets were all beautiful, shiny and all by themselves. Some were in unusual places. I remember seeing one in a closet, with a glass door. That one had shiny wood with gold trim. They really were amazing. And my mother was soaking a lot of men's shirts, like polo shirts, she was soaking the necks of the shirts in tubs of water and the water was soapy and murky. She had the shirts laid out, one on top of the other, hanging on the floor with the neck part in the water. The shirts were different colors and patterns.

Like the first dream, this dream makes absolutely no sense when taken literally. Let's begin to see if any sense can be made out of it.

1) Dream Setting: The dream is set in the house of the dreamer's mother. Symbolically a mother can represent the Church. By using the word 'Church', I am not referring to a building. Rather I am referring to the people of God who comprise the body of Christ.

A mother is one whose role is to love, nurture and care for her children. This gives a picture of what the Church is called to do. So, I believe that in this case, the setting for this dream is the Church. (I will speak more on this below.)

2) Dream Symbols:

- a) Seven Toilets = A toilet symbolizes cleansing and repentance. Seven is the number of perfection and completion. (Seven along with three are considered to be God's numbers.)
- b) Wood with Gold Trim = Wood speaks of humanity, while gold symbolizes Deity. The picture is man covered by the glory of God (Exodus 37:15.)
- c) Shirts = A clean shirt symbolizes holiness and a dirty shirt signifies a life stained with sin (Zechariah 3:1-6.)
- d) Tubs of Soapy Water = The Holy Spirit washing away sin

3) Dream Subject: I believe that the subject of this dream is the body of Christ. The dream might be for a specific local church but I sense in the Spirit that it is a prophetic message for the entire body. One thing that points to this is that the shirts were different colors and patterns. This can speak of the entire Church body, which is comprised of people from every nation, tribe, and language (Revelation 7:9.)

4) Dream Message: This dream is prophetic of a move of repentance and cleansing coming to the Church. The toilet behind a glass door speaks of people repenting publicly for all to see. As people repent and turn to the Lord, God's glory will return to His Church and the stain of sin will be washed away. This dream is a confirmation to me, as I have seen in the Spirit that God is going to bring great conviction and cleansing to His people. Many others have prophesied this as well.

5) Dream Source: It is obvious to me that this dream is from the Lord.

I dreamt that my teenage daughter and I were preparing for a trip. We didn't have a lot of money and it was dark and raining. We were on a college campus and we went to the eating area where they had a small grocery store and they sold prepared food. We gathered up things to buy for our trip. I think the trip was by car, but I'm sure it was just us two.

1) Dream Setting: The dream took place on a college campus. A college can symbolize several things, but the context and the Spirit tell me that it here signifies a period of testing that the dreamer and her daughter are going through. (Again, if you feel that you have other insights, please send them to me.) Also, it was dark and raining. In this instance, I feel the darkness and rain signify a difficult period in the dreamer's life. Darkness also symbolizes a lack of direction. They then went to the grocery store, which speaks of a place of receiving spiritual nourishment.

It is difficult to describe sometimes why I assign a particular meaning to a symbol, because of the element of Spiritual revelation involved. The only way to learn to interpret dreams is to start to do it and interact with the Holy Spirit. Knowledge will only take you so far.

2) Dream Symbols:

a) A Trip = I believe that the trip refers to the next stage of the dreamer's life. While she was going through a dark and difficult time of testing, the trip signifies a new place of destiny. She was preparing for it, but did not have the inner resources or the light to transition out of the place of darkness.

b) Food = Food speaks of the Word of God.

c) “Things to buy for the trip” = The “things” I believe are the spiritual elements (faith, God’s direction, etc.) the dreamer needed for her “trip” to the next level in God’s plan for her life. (Isaiah 55:1)

3) Dream Subject: The dream subjects are the dreamer and her daughter.

4) Dream Message: The dream is a call to the dreamer and her daughter to focus on their devotional lives in order to receive what they lacked from the Lord to get past the trials and testing. In the midst of the trial, they went to the grocery store (to eat of the Word and drink of the Spirit) to get what they needed for the trip.

5) Dream Source: If my interpretation is correct, then this dream is from the Lord.

Multiple Scenes

Many times, dreams will contain more than one scene. Even when each scene seems totally unrelated to the others, you will typically find a connection. Here are several ways in which multiple scenes might be interrelated. This is a very incomplete list. The possibilities are endless due to the Lord’s boundless creativity.

- 1) The first scene may reveal a sin in the dreamer’s life, while the next scene shows the possible consequences of that sin if there is no repentance.
- 2) The first scene may portray an attack of the enemy while the next scene shows the ultimate victory.
- 3) The first scene might be of an event from the past, while the next scene reveals how the past issue is still affecting the dream subject.
- 4) The first scene may center on a problem, while the next one could reveal the solution.

- 5) The first scene might portray a certain behavior or attitude while the subsequent scene shows either the Lord's pleasure or displeasure concerning it.
- 6) The scenes may prophetically unveil a progression of future events (Daniel 7:1-14)

 Many times, different dreams which occur on the same night are interrelated. Just as with multiples scenes, look for the ways in which these dreams may connect.

Recurring Dreams

It is important to examine the phenomena of reoccurring dreams. These are dreams you have more than once. What are some of the reasons we experience reoccurring dreams?

If you are having a recurring nightmare, it might signify that there is an open door in your life to the enemy that hasn't been dealt with adequately. (See Lesson One for a deeper explanation.) Let me give you an example from my own life. For years I had a recurring nightmare that I was out of town and suddenly realized that my keys, phone, wallet, car and money were gone. While this might not sound so terrifying, I would often wake up disoriented and trembling in fear. I believe that the reason I kept having this dream was because the enemy had a stronghold of fear and unbelief in my life. Dreams like that will expose the ongoing demonic activity so that you can be set free. This usually takes a combination of repentance and inner healing.

A recurring nightmare can also point to unconfessed ongoing sin. The Lord will continually bring warning through an individual's dream life where there is continuous sin and rebellion. Because the Lord is gracious and merciful, He will reach out to us again and again as He breaks through our often hardened hearts until His purposes are performed in our lives

If a recurring dream is prophetic in nature, the Lord may be emphasizing the prophetic message as confirmation. For example, if someone has a recurring dream of revival coming to a city, this might be the Lord's way of affirming and highlighting the truth of the message.

In summary, recurring dreams are the Lord's way of bringing emphasis, clarity, focus, and/or confirmation to a dream message.

DREAM ASSIGNMENT #6

Using the model I gave you; begin to review your dreams on a daily basis. Remember to take your interpretations before the Lord in prayer. As you become proficient, ask others to share their dreams with you (keeping in mind the section on application in Lesson Six.)

If you are going to become adept in any area of prophetic ministry, immerse yourself in the Word of God like never before. Sit quietly before the Lord, and learn to discern His voice on a regular basis. Keep your life pure, and separate yourself from the unholy pleasures of this World. May God bless you, as you seek to know His voice in new ways. Step out of the boat, walk on the water and let the Lord fill you with revelation.

More Sample Dreams

In this section I am adding two more sample dreams in order to give a better understanding of how the process of dream interpretation works.

Sample Dream # 4

I dreamt that I was at the zoo sitting by a large pool of water with my legs in the water. In the pool were dangerous animals swimming around and around such as snakes, alligators and bears. I felt panic, especially when one of them would brush against my leg. The zookeeper was there and he said, "As long as you do not respond to the animals in fear they will not hurt you." I was never hurt by any of these dangerous animals.

1) Dream Setting: The dream setting was a zoo. The zoo speaks of a difficult time of life for the dreamer in which there are many trials and attacks of the enemy.

2) Dream Symbols:

- a) Alligator = An alligator symbolizes verbal attack
- b) Bear = A bear symbolizes an attack against one's finances
- c) Snake = A snake symbolizes deception
- d) Zookeeper = I believe the zookeeper in this dream represents the Lord who is ultimately in control of all of our circumstances.

3) Dream Subject: The dream subject is the dreamer

4) Dream Message: This dream is a message to the dreamer to put total trust in the Lord regardless of what the enemy is doing. The Lord is in total control and even though the enemy's attacks seem constant the dreamer will not be hurt as long as he does not become fearful and lose faith.

5) Dream Source: This dream is clearly from the Lord.

SAMPLE DREAM # 5

I walked over to the beach and saw a strange scene. It was daytime and there was a group of people setting up sleeping bags, mats, and beds on the beach to sleep overnight. I walked over to a woman who had somehow brought her whole bed, frame, mattress, headboard with her. She set the whole thing up on the beach! Around the entire bed were short shelves built into it, filled with books. I walked over to where she was because I was fascinated that she had brought everything with her. She and I started talking. I said to her, "I would love to do this!" For some reason, in the dream, I thought that I couldn't or that this wasn't really for me. She said that I could. All I needed to do was to bring my sleeping bag. Then the dream was over.

1) Dream Setting: The setting was the beach. The beach is a place of peace, rest and joy. It can also be a place of meeting with God as it symbolize the meeting of man (sand) and the Holy Spirit (Water)

2) Dream Symbols:

- a) Bed, Mats, Sleeping Bag = A bed, a mat and a sleeping bag symbolize a place of intimacy with God
- b) Books = Books here speak of divine revelation
- c) Unnamed People = I believe that the people are Christians who are coming to seek God. The woman who brought her whole bed is someone who has truly come to a place of intimacy and rest in the Lord.

3) Dream Subject: The dream subject is the dreamer herself

4) Dream Message: The message of this dream is a call to the dreamer to find a place in her devotional life of rest and intimacy with God. Isaiah 55:1-2 says: "Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat! Come; buy wine and milk without money and without cost. Why spend money on what is not bread, and your labor on what does not satisfy? Listen, listen to me, and eat what is good and your soul will delight in the richest of fare."

God is calling her to stop her striving and spend time in His Presence where she can find peace and rest and receive revelation.

5) Dream Source: This is a word from the Lord

PRECIOUS STONES

*There is much disagreement about the exact stones found in the Bible. Diamonds, rubies, sapphires, are not considered to be the same stones that we associate these names with. That is why various Bible translations often differ in what they call a particular stone. For example what the NKJV identifies as diamond the NIV translates as emerald (Exodus 28:18.) Also many attempts to find the symbolic meanings for various stones have been based on the placement of the stones in the breastplate of the high priest (Exodus 28:17-21.) Each stone corresponded to the name of one of the sons of Jacob. The problem is that in my research I have discovered that Bible scholars disagree on which stone corresponds to which name because of the difficulty in specifically identifying ancient stones. All in all, I have sorted it out the best I can in assigning symbolic meanings to the precious stones listed below, but you might want to further research these yourself.
